ORDER DENYING MOTION (ECF NO. 57)

Before the Court is the Motion to Reconsider filed by 2727 Kirby 26L LLC, 9201 Memorial Dr. LLC, And Shepherd, Huldry Development I, LLC, defendants in this case, and the response in opposition filed by the plaintiffs, Osama Abdullatif, Omar Khawaja, John Quinlan (ECF No. 93). The motion in all things is denied.

The Motion seeks to vacate the order based on violations of due process and to correct a clear error of fact or law. The Court declines to do so for the following reasons.

First, the Agreed Order is an agreement between the parties to that order. It only binds the parties to that order [the BridgeCo Defendants] and any language regarding any sale of property would still require a motion and order in the main bankruptcy case to which the movants herein could object. Additionally, the Trustee owns only the debtor's interest in the subject properties as of the petition date and can only sell that interest. That the movants believe that the Trustee could sell the interest of an unrelated third party is without merit.

The properties are subject to disputed claims that they are part of the bankruptcy estate via claims of alter ego, joint enterprise liability and fraudulent transfers. Assuming these allegations are true, and these issues have yet to be litigated, this Court has jurisdiction. To rule otherwise would thwart the Bankruptcy Code and the role of the Chapter 7 Trustee to liquidate assets for the benefit of creditors. of the liquidating trustee. The Court agrees with the respondents as to the Court's jurisdiction.

For these reasons, it is ORDERED that the Motion to Reconsider is in all things denied.
